PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

DEPARTMENT OF LANDS (WATER RIGHTS BRANCH).

Further Certificate of Approval of Undertaking.

WHEREAS the Corporation of the City of Port Moody is the holder of certificates approving its undertakings relative to the diversion and use of water from Noon Creek and Scott Creek for waterworks purpose:

And whereas the said Corporation has filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights applications for licences to authorize the diversion and use of an additional 100,000 gallons of water a day from the West Branch of Noon Creek and 50,000 gallons of water a day from Mossom Creek for waterworks purpose:

And whereas the said Corporation has petitioned for the approval of its undertaking in respect of the said applications:

And whereas it appears in the public interest to grant the prayer of the Corporation's petition:

This is to certify that the undertaking of the Corporation of the City of Port Moody relative to the diversion and use of 100,000 gallons of water a day from the West Branch of Noon Creek and 50,000 gallons of water a day from Mossom Creek for waterworks purpose, as the said undertaking is outlined in the petition of the Corporation filed with the Comptroller of Water Rights on February 19th, 1936, is hereby approved, subject to the provisions of the "Water Act" and the following conditions:—

(1.) The construction of the works necessary to divert and use the said quantities of water shall be commenced by May 1st, 1938, and shall be carried out to the satisfaction of the Comptroller of Water Rights:

(2.) The territory within which the Corporation of the City of Port Moody may distribute and sell the water it may divert from the West Branch of Noon Creek and Mossom Creek shall comprise the territorial limits of the said city.

This certificate does not authorize the diversion of any water or the construction of any works, nor is it an approval of the plans of any works.

(14.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, where-soever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(15.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(16.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(17.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(18.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(19.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, and sell stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company or any supreme, municipal, public or local board or authority:

(20.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(21.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(22.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(23.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, state, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, state, or territory:

(24.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(25.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(26.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(27.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital, or guaranteeing any debentures or other securities of the Company in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(28.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(29.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere:

(30.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

The Company adopts the powers conferred by section 22 of the "Companies Act" so far as the same are not inconsistent with the foregoing.

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company authorized to carry on or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, and information so acquired:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person or company, and to sell, hold, reissue, or otherwise deal with the same:

(j.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(k.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(l.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property rights and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(m.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of the business:

(n.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(o.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, or not so charged, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(q.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(r.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitutions, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place:

(v.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(y.) If thought fit, to obtain any Act of Parliament dissolving the Company and re-incorporating its members as a new company for any of the objects specified in this memorandum, or for effecting any other modification in the Company's constitution; to amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(z.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in every paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company; and none of such paragraphs, nor the objects therein specified, nor the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or ancillary merely to the objects mentioned in the first paragraph of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first paragraph of this clause.

The authorized capital of the Company is fifty thousand dollars, divided into five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 1318 Standard Bank Building, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia and in the waters in and surrounding the same, or in any part of the world, the business of fishermen, canners, packers, salters, curers, and preservers of all kinds of fish, crabs, oysters, lobsters, and other products of the sea or inland waters; to locate, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire fishing-sites, canneries-sites, fish-traps, and lands suitable for the growing of and cultivation of oysters, lobsters, crabs, and other sea products, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(b.) To carry on the business of buying, catching, propagating, breeding, storing, freezing, packing, canning, salting, smoking, curing, preserving, dealing in and selling, or consigning to agents for sale, fish of every kind and description, including oysters, clams, lobsters, and all other forms and varieties of shell-fish, and of game and poultry:

(c.) To make, buy, manufacture, refine, acquire, sell, and deal in all kinds of fish-oils, fish-meal, fish-guano, fish-glue, gelatine, and all products and by-products which may be made out of fish, fish offal and refuse, and otherwise dispose of the same:

(d.) To manufacture, erect, construct, produce, buy, acquire, maintain, sell, and deal in or deal with all articles, apparatus, appurtenances, and appliances which may be useful, convenient, or profitable to manufacture, erect, construct, produce, buy, acquire, maintain, sell, or deal in or with, or in furtherance of, or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(e.) To build, construct, purchase, charter, or otherwise acquire and operate vessels, steam-boats, fishing-boats, tugs, tenders, scows, barges, crafts, and boats of every description or any interest therein, and to let out, lease, hire, mortgage, charter, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein:

(f.) To purchase, use, construct, manufacture, hold, and sell nets, lines, seines, fish-traps, and other implements, appliances, and instruments for catching, taking, and preserving fish in any part of Canada and in the water adjacent thereto:

(g.) To erect, construct, maintain, operate, alter, buy, acquire, mortgage, and dispose of buildings, piers, wharves, canneries, salteries, smoke-houses, and machinery of every description in pursuance, or furtherance of, or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(h.) To buy, lease, hire, acquire, subdivide, become possessed of or entitled to, and to sell, mortgage, lease, let, or otherwise dispose of, real estate, foreshore with territorial water rights for fishing, foreshore rights, trawling rights and fishing rights and privileges, real and personal property, and patents or patent rights, or the right to the exclusive or qualified use of any machinery, appliances, process, receipt, or method of any description, whether patented or protected from general use by any authority or power whatsoever, machinery, warehouses, wharves, fishing-stations, and other buildings and easements in any part of Canada or in any part of the world which it may be necessary, profitable, useful, or convenient to so buy, lease, hire, acquire, or otherwise become possessed of or entitled to in pursuance or furtherance of or in connection with the business hereinbefore specified:

(i.) To acquire from the Dominion Government or the Government of any Province any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges which may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company, or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on the Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(j.) To construct or equip cold-storage plants, and to carry on the business of cold storage, and to harvest, buy, sell, and manufacture ice, wholesale and retail, and to deal generally in ice, both natural and artificial, and to utilize ice and other material for the purpose of cold storage:

(k.) To carry on business as dealers in ice, stone, sand, lime, tin, lumber, brick, dry-goods, groceries, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of real estate, insurance, and transfer agents, warehousemen, butchers and meat-packers, and common carriers by land and water; and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire, or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the powers herein contained; and in connection with the business of the Company, to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any article dealt in by the Company:

(l.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the lease or purchase of water records or water privileges:

(m.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate works and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(n.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used:

(o.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied:

(p.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by erecting dams, increasing the head of water in any existing body of water or extending the area thereof, diverting the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels, laying or erecting any line of flume, pipe, or weir, and constructing any raceway, reservoir, aqueduct, weir, wheel, building, or other erection or work which may be required in connection with the improvements and use of the said water or water-power, or by altering, renewing, extending, improving, repairing, or maintaining any such works or any part thereof:

(q.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and in particular to construct and lay down, establish, fix, and carry out all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, sell, and supply electricity, and to light buildings, streets, docks, and places, both public and private:

(r.) To construct, operate, and maintain electrical works, power-houses, generating plant, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for generating electricity or any other form of developed power, and for transmitting the same, to be used by the Company or other persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, as a motive power, or for all or any of the purposes to which electricity or electric power derived from water may be applied, used, or acquired:

(s.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges, fishing licences, or leases which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in payment for same to allot shares of the Company, credited as such or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price thereof, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(t.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(u.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks or privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in part and at any time or times:

(v.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, permits, or licences acquired by the Company, either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company, either partly or fully paid up, or for any valuable considerations as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) To carry passengers and goods on any of the vessels, boats, scows, barges, and crafts of the Company between such places as the Company may from time to time determine, and to collect money for fares and freight for the carriage of such passengers and goods, and the doing of all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company:

(x.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses, or the objects therein specified, or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.
